

London History Forum: The Power of the Particular

30 March 2017, 4.00pm-8.30pm
Tower of London

- 4.00pm Registration at the Tower of London Welcome Centre
- Delegates who arrive early from 4pm will receive a wristband allowing for free entry into the Tower of London.
- 5.00pm Meet outside the entrance to the Fusiliers Museum. Delegates will be escorted to the Learning Centre for refreshments and object handling.
- There will be someone available to pick up any late-comers, but please be aware that the Tower does not allow visitors in after 5.30pm.
- 5.30pm Welcome and keynote: Michael Riley (Director, Schools History Project)
- The Power of the Particular*
- 6.15pm Workshop 1
- Primary: Shereen Hunte (Historic Royal Palaces)
- Take one building: using the Tower of London to shed light on 1000 years of history*
- Secondary: Martin Spafford
- In the shadow of the Tower: migrants, monarchs and movements of the people*
- 7.15pm Break
- 7.30pm Workshop 2
- Primary: Jane Fremantle (Whiteheath Junior School)
- History made fun while enabling children to get a sense of the past: Chronology and Connections through the Tower of London*
- Secondary: Paddy McKeating (Pimlico Academy)
- The Normans through the eyes of the Tower: Teaching the Normans at GCSE*
- 8.30pm Close