

Year 11 reflections on GCSE History – Autumn term

Molly Holtby.

Complete this sheet and hand it in next lesson.

How would you describe the state of your Year 10 GCSE history notes?

- Organised (relatively)

What are you going to do to get the answer to excellent? (...if it is not!)

Organise it more and don't let it get messy.

What did you do over the summer related to your GCSE history?

- made revision cards
- revised notes
- watched history documentaries.

What grade would you like to get in the summer?

A/B

What are you doing to make sure that you get that grade?

- Concrete notes
- revise times/dates (chronologically)
- make cards.

How can we help you to achieve it?

Recap notes and help individually.

What do you most and least enjoy about history lessons?

Most like: watching outside clips/films, timelines.

"doing" activities eg: team work sheets

least like:

note making.

Teacher comments:

You have such a good work ethic! Start to collect a list of trickier points you want to go over in revision lessons, so we don't miss anything.

Year 11 GCSE History - Now you have completed your mocks you need to reflect and plan ahead.

What went well about the mocks for you?

I think I did some good revision on Germany & Britain

What did not go as well as you had hoped?

I didn't write as much as I wanted overall

I wasn't confident on Eastern Europe

What have you learnt from the experience of doing the mocks?

How to answer different types of question

What I need to go over again

What are you going to do to make sure that you get the best possible grade in the summer?

Allow enough time for revision

Try to work on speeding up answers

What help do you need to get there?

I'd like to revise Eastern Europe in class

Noted.
