- Gruenheide-York Partnership project on remembrance and commemoration
- Joint Mount/Millthorpe battlefields tour
- ISSP work
- Article published with HS in Teaching History

3. Have you encountered any difficulties affecting your job performance during the past year?
Why do you think they may have occurred?

- IT unpredictability and lack of flexibility

4. Does your job description (copy attached) accurately describe your current duties?

B. Performance Statement (Review of last year)

(To be agreed by both Reviewer and Reviewee)

To include:

- Discussion about my pastoral role
- Extra curricular contribution
- Any features of pupil performance you would like to highlight that are not covered in the Departmental Review

There is now a buzz about the links between Millthorpe and The Mount and PMG e.g. even resulting in some marketing enquiries because of a UK-German connection.

Admin and planning to ensure successful overseas visit between two schools was excellent.

A2 students felt confident and supported to achieve excellent results in A2 coursework module.

Knows the girls taught very well despite being very part time. A presence in the school beyond the few hours contracted. Follows up with colleagues, e.g. in learning support – great communication.

Co-opted onto OSG for ISSP

Accompanied history fieldwork trips, including in own time e.g. to Wilberforce House with Y8

C. Personal Career Development and Record of training

In School:
