

2.1 Status of History: How is the high status of history reflected within the school and beyond?

Here at All Saints we aim to ensure that the displays inside our classrooms and through our corridors celebrates the children's success, stimulates their learning, informs their awareness, extends their thinking and is used as a learning resource. Wherever possible we aim to locate displays at eye level which provides our children with a sense of ownership and encourages them to interact with the artefacts and questions

