

Doing History at University 2017
In partnership with University College London

Wednesday 12 July 2017, 10am-4pm

JOINING INSTRUCTIONS

Venue: University College London, SSEES Building (Room 347), 16 Taviton Street, London WC1H 0BW

Directions to UCL: <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/maps/public-transport/>

Map of the building: <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/maps/ssees-building>

PROGRAMME

- 09.30-10.00 Registration and refreshments
- 10.00-11.00 Session 1: Doing History at UCL and the admissions process
Cari Tuhey and David Sim, UCL
- 11.00-11.15 Comfort break
- 11.15-12.15 Session 2: How do we make great historians and what are we looking for in a great historian? How can we show this through a university application and personal statement?
Tony McConnell, Editor of Teaching History
- 12.15-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00-14.00 Session 3: The interview process. This will also contain the prospect of a possible mock interview. If you or one of your students would like to have a go at being interviewed, don't be shy and let us know at the start of the day!
Tony McConnell
- 14.00-14.15 Comfort break
- 14.15-15.15 Session 4: Getting better at history and making the leap to university: what makes a stand out application?
Tony McConnell
- 15.15-16.00 Session 5: Breakout sessions for students and teachers.
Teachers: planning from year 7 to make university-ready historians
Tony McConnell
- Students: The Horse's Mouth: Q & A session on the student perspective
UCL History students
- 16.00 Close