With thanks

The Historical Association would like to thank all those who have contributed so energetically and creatively both to the Teacher Fellowship programme through 2019 and to the creation of this book and its online resources through 2020.

In particular: Dr Grace Huxford of the University of Bristol and Professor Thomas Hennessey of Canterbury Christ Church University for their enthusiastic support and for making their scholarship available and accessible; and Dr Deokhyo Choi of the School of East Asian Studies at the University of Sheffield, Dr James Hoare of SOAS University of London and Dr Michael Shin of the University of Cambridge for their invaluable support and expertise in resourcing the online element of the Teacher Fellowship programme.

The Historical Association also extends its gratitude to the editorial team led by development manager Jim Belben and editor Ben Walsh for their talented and intelligent development of this publication.

Special thanks also go to Dr Jongwoo Han of the Korean War Legacy Foundation and Joseph Karb of the World History Digital Education Foundation, without whom this project would not have happened, and to the Korea Foundation for their gracious support.

Editorial team

This publication was edited and designed by Ben Walsh (ben@bwalsh.uk.com), Jim Belben (jim.belben@btinternet.com), Vicki Sennett (vicki@fool-proofs.co.uk) and Lesley Lee of Lesley Lee Design (lesley@llcreative.co.uk).

The editorial team would like to extend their special thanks to Melanie Jones for her able leadership of the project, and Maddie Bruno and Maheema Chanrai at the Historical Association for their support on image research. and rights clearance.
