Learning from the past, living in the present, shaping the future

Overview

Would you like the opportunity to think creatively about your geography and history teaching and how it can support learning across the wider curriculum? Are you enthusiastic about developing primary geography and history and keen to be part of a growing initiative that wants to inspire all young people? If so, then this is the one-day conference for you.

Workshops

Delegates will attend three out of six workshops during the day. Full workshop descriptions are available at www.geography.org.uk/primaryconference
