

Monday 11th February 2002

LO: Know how Tudor dynasty began.

In 1485 Richard III was king, lots of people wanted to battle him.,

Richard the III defeated lots charging people, who wanted the crown.

Richard the III's symbol was the red rose, it showed that he was from the house of Lancaster.

Richard the III had a very 2 sided defeat, Henry Tudor the duke of richmond (They were fighting for ^{the} crown. Lots of people in the 2 sides had been killed, by the other team, The battle was called the battle of Bosworth.

Richard the III was struck down and stabbed, by Henry Tudor. Henry celebrated with the surviving men, that were on his side.

Night after day the crown wait on Henry. Once they searched and searched lying in a bush was Richards old crown. One of the servants crowned Henry Tudor as Henry the VIII.

Once Henry had the crown he married Elizabeth the II. The house of York and the house of Lancaster were together. Henry the VIII became a father when Elizabeth had 4 babies. They were called Arthur, Margaret, Henry, and Mary.

lots of people wanted to become king. but as soon as that started Henry started to take tax of the people so their army couldn't fight.