

Your house in Woburn Square

What shape is the door?

Is there a fanlight above the door?

Tell us about the doorbell, letterbox, knocker - shape, size, number

Is there a name plate?

List any interesting objects or architectural features outside

What shape are the windows?

Is there any decoration? (tell us about doors, walls, roof edges, windows)

What materials is the house built with (walls, roof, windows)?

Is the house someone's home, or is the building used for something else?
(Tell us what)

GORDON & WOBURN SQUARES

STREET FURNITURE: PICTURES

Boot scraper, Woburn Square

Coal cover, Gordon Square

Jubilee walkway south of Woburn Square

Classic street furniture: lamp-post in Bedford Square, post-box with Edward VII monogram on the corner of Bayley Street and Tottenham Court Road, telephone boxes in Byng Place beside the Gordon Square church.

